

The Kite Trade Association International is proud to recognize businesses who have been members of the KTAI for 20 years or more!

Their dedication to the Association and Industry and their contributions to the trade have been the driving force in the success and longevity of our Association.

When dealing with a KTAI member on this list, you know you are partnering with a reputable business that has over 20 years of education in the industry. These companies have experienced the progression on the kite and toy market and evolved their businesses to continue to realize success in a changing economy.

Congratulations and thank you for your continued support, loyalty and membership in the Kite Trade Association International.
